A thoughtful gift

Don't focus on the price tag when you want to choose a gift.
 Instead, get creative and think about a different set of values.

Care

There are many things you can buy for friends, family members or even teachers. From a framed photograph to a small gift, each present sends a powerful message. And the closer you are to a person, the more 65 your present can be — it's a real chance to prove how well you know them and their interests. Before you make a purchase, think about the 66 of the person you're buying for. It's not the price of the gift, but the thought behind it.

Time

You can give your time in so many ways.

Homemade presents are special and show you care enough to make an effort. 67 with emotion can also bring a sense of happiness. It could be knitting a scarf with their favourite colour, making a greeting card with a self-created poem inside or baking lovely cupcakes. Whatever you decide, make it amazing — for them and for you. And a gift doesn't even have to be '68'. It could be simply hanging out together, including watching your friend's must-see movie, visiting your mother's favourite museum or asking a grandparent to tell you more about his/her childhood. The gift of time is 69 — think carefully about how the other person would wish to spend a few hours or a day together.

Meaning

Why wait for a birthday or Christmas? From 'I'm sorry' to 'I love you' and 'thank you' to 'good luck', gifts can take many messages and 70 inner feelings of regret, thankfulness when you are too shy to speak them out. It's a wonderful feeling for the giver, too, as the person will be surprised and touched by such a display of care and attention.

As a child, do you dare to be a dreamer? Dreamers build bridges between the known and the unknown, and dance their dreams into reality (现实). So why not let your dreams fly?

Here is a good choice for you — Make Today Your Dreams Come True Day. If you've been putting off realizing your dreams, this day gives you a chance to make a fresh s 71.

It's important to dream because dreams can give us the energy to s 72 in life. Dreams can push us forward. The great thing about dreams is that there's no stress to realize them right away. It might take a few years or even a lifetime to a 73 them. The important thing is to be always working t 74 your dreams. And the best way to do that is by setting goals.

Dreams can be very general. But the steps you take to reach them should be very detailed. Your dreams tell what you want, but goals show how you'll get there. That means goal setting is a n 75 step in reaching your dreams.

A lot of great people have spoken about dreams. Someone stressed the importance of working for your dreams. 'A dream never comes true e 76; it takes sweat, decision and hard work.' A famous author reminded us that dreams have nothing to do with age. 'It's never too late to set a 77 goal or to dream a new dream.'

If you are dreaming of doing something, please take action right now. Write down your dreams, set your goals, and then you'll be on your way to make your dreams come true.

Eric was standing in front of a large grey house in the countryside. He had just been dropped off by his mum, who left after telling him that he was going to spend the next twelve days there with no TV, no mobile phone and — worse of all — no computer.

Suddenly, a man appeared at the entrance of the house. When he saw Eric, he went up to him immediately. 'You must be Eric. Welcome to the camp,' said the man confidently. 'I'm Tony, the camp leader, but you will call me "Sir". Now tell me why you're here.'

Eric quickly replied, 'My mum made me come!' When Tony looked at him angrily and did not say anything, Eric realized his mistake and added, 'Sir!'

'And do you know why your mother sent you here?' asked Tony.

'She thinks I spend too much time online. Sir,' answered Eric. 'It's not just her opinion — it's the truth! Look at you — pale, unfit, and definitely not getting enough sleep. You're here because you think the virtual world is much better than the real world. But you're wrong! The real world has much more to offer. At the camp, you're going to go hiking, rowing, rock-climbing and stay outdoors most of the time,' promised Tony.

Eric's heart sank.

'But it's not going to be all fun and games,' Tony continued. 'We have rules here. If you break them, you'll get punished. But you won't simply get detention (课后留校), and you can forget about suspension (停学) — you'll never be sent home early! Instead, you'll clean the toilets, wash the dishes or do an extra hour of exercise!'

'Oh Mum,' sighed Eric. 'What have you got me into?'

Dear Editor,

I have lived in Jackson my entire life. I go to Lake School. I am in second grade. I am writing this letter because I do not agree with your article. You wrote about the new shopping mall that will be built on First Street. I think it is exciting to have new things to do here. I just wish our city did not decide to get rid of Hardy Park. Why should we lose a park to get a mall?
