My host family are really nice. The parents, Susan and Paul, are very friendly and kind. The children are called Lewis and Amy. They're both in primary school and are very sweet but they can be a bit annoying too. If I have to 38 the film Frozen with them one more time, I'm going to go 39! I know all the songs by heart now. We live pretty near the school so I walk there every day. It's only a short bus ride from Edinburgh city centre, and there are loads of shops and cafés there. There's an 40 castle too and we're going there on a school trip next week. Edinburgh is a really interesting place to see and there's a festival on 41. It's awesome but a bit expensive for us students, so we've been hanging out in the streets, watching the free street performances from actors and musicians. Yesterday I saw a magician doing card tricks -- it was so much 42!

I'll send some 43 of Edinburgh Castle next time. Please take care and let me know how you are doing.

To Dream and to Create

According to Guinness World Records, Sydney girl Roxanne Downs is the world's youngest magazine editor. She joined the It GiRL magazine in 2017 at the age of eight and has seen its readership grow continuously since then. In a recent interview, the girl shared her story and offered some great advice to young people.

Tell us about yourself and your role at It GiRL.

I'm just an ordinary girl who likes to dream. I don't like taking "no" for an answer. At It GiRL I enjoy creating things and meeting new and exciting people.

So what is It GiRL? Can you introduce it to us?

Sure. It GiRL is a magazine that is based in Australia. It targets girls between the ages of 7 and 14. It offers games, puzzles, celebrity (名人) interviews, posters, jokes and many other interesting things.

So how did you end up becoming an editor when you were only eight years old?

It GiRL was actually my favorite magazine. I was always coming home and sharing my ideas for it with my parents. One of the magazine's editors was a friend of my dad's. Soon after he came to know my story, I started to edit the magazine, interview famous people and attend meetings with people five times my age.

Apart from your own, do you have a favorite record in Guinness World Records, or maybe one that you want to break?

I'm the shortest girl in my whole class at school. So it may be fun to be the tallest person in the world even if just for one day!

Do you have any advice for other young people?

Sure. If you know what your dream is, then chase it because a dream will not chase you back. Just go for it because you never know what will happen unless you try.

78. How old is Roxanne Downs now in 2022?

79. Does Roxanne Downs like taking "no" for an answer?

80. Who are the target readers of the magazine It GiRL?

81. Why does Roxanne Downs dream to be the tallest person in the world?

82. What is Roxanne Downs' attitude to a dream?

83. What is your dream? What have you done or what will you do to make it come true?

Dear fellow students,

Attention, please. The English Club is going to hold a tongue twister contest at this year's English Festival. On March 8, we will post twenty tongue twisters. You will have one week to practice. The contest will be held on March 15.

Here is how the competition works: A student will first choose one of the twenty tongue twisters by drawing a number. Then, he or she will need to perform the chosen tongue twister. The English teachers will be the judges. They will score the students' performance according to their pronunciation and fluency. The student with the highest score will win the contest.

In order to keep the competition fair, the judges will read all the twenty tongue twisters at the beginning of the contest. If a teacher makes a mistake, he or she will have to come up on stage and sing a song. We are sure that this competition will be full of laughter and fun.

Call us at 8219-3244 to join the competition. Come and have fun!

The English Club

D. Listen to the passage and complete the following sentences. (听短文, 用听到的单词完成下列句子, 每空格限填一词。) (10 分)

My name is Alice. I grew up in the countryside. I didn't understand what the country life brought to me until I became an adult. It helped me learn more practical skills than my friends who grew up in cities.

I learned to cook at around 10 years old. The first skill I learned was to make noodles.

Later, I cooked fried dishes and things like dumplings. I fell in love with cooking. It's a good way to relax. More importantly, thanks to my cooking skill, I could live better than others during the pandemic.

Besides cooking, I did a lot of farm work in my childhood. I got to know how to plant vegetables. Though it was hard work, the experience taught me things that many of my friends still don't know.

Some might say we can learn these things from textbooks. But it brings a new way to look at the world. You'll value everything on your plate.

This may be why I'm so happy to hear that labor education will be required in China. Trust me. These practical skills the students learn at school will help them for the rest of their life.
